

There will be an interesting event at the Czech Embassy on 13. May,
a concert by the Czech choir MUSICA SARENSIS,

„Sung from Afar“

„ Zpíváno z dálky“

commemorating the fifteenth anniversary of the death of the Czech polymath Jan Křesadlo.(13.8.1995) x)

The program includes the British premiere of the composition of the same name Zpíváno z dálky by Antonín Tučapský, who set to music, after the author's death, five poems from the collection of Křesadlo's „Sedmhlásek“, followed by Arabeska by A.Tučapský, with Tomáš Pinsker, violin ,accomp. by piano.

The concert will take place at the Czech Embassy, 26, Kensington Palace Gardens, W8 4Q, London, on Thursday, 13. May at 6.30pm (doors open at 6pm)

After the concert there will be refreshments.

If you would like to attend, make sure you , that after the official invitation from the Embassy is issued you RSVP by 30.April on tel. 0207-243.7983 or events.london@embassy.mzv.cz

This event is also supported by SVU, BCSA and the Dvořák Society.

x) www.kresadlo.cz

